MAXIMIZING THE IMPACT OF URBAN SERVANT LEADERSHIP

John E. Girton, a.k.a. "Pastor G" is an urban servant leader, community organizer, educator, certified speaking professional, and multi-media entrepreneur.

With a Masters degree in Urban Ministry Studies, Pastor G has dedicated his life to empowering the next generation of emerging urban servants. His recent "tent campaigns" have focused on redefining the approach of community leaders from transactional to transformational. Through his street campaigns he has earned the label, "The People's Pastor." The patterns and principles of his Urban Servant Leadership approach have been the underpinning of his FORWARD Podcast Series, quarterly FORWARD Magazine, and a successful Un-Conference series held bi-annually.

In his extensive professional career, Pastor G has facilitated workshops and seminars to thousands across the U.S. on topics including urban engagement, technology, organizational development, and family and community engagement.

As a former college professor, Pastor G is a storyteller who brings presentations alive with a captivating sense of transparency, honesty, humor and sincerity. His passion is evident in every opportunity he has to share his life's mission to help servant leaders reach their full potential.

"DYNAMIC AND MOTIVATIONAL! DEFINITELY LIKES WHAT HE IS DOING. ONE OF THE MOST LIKABLE AND PROFESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS. HIS KNOWLEDGE IS SUPERIOR . . ."

ITT Technical Institute, Nashville, TN

"MOTIVATED YOUTH TO REMAIN FOCUSED AND THINK BIG, THINGS TAKE TIME. EVERYTHING WAS VALUABLE."

Gloria Stevenson, South Plains College [Parent]

"THE INFO WAS VALUABLE AND THE DELIVERY WAS REAL AND RIGHT ON TIME."

Mary Foxworth, Pearl-Cohn Magnet High School
